You may visit your camper on Tuesday afternoon during their stay, please make arrangements with the camp dean prior to visit. If you wish to stay for supper, the meal is $5 per person.

DRESS CODE: Clothing must be camp appropriate and fully cover the rear and backside. No foul language or inappropriate graphics on clothes will be permitted. No crop tops or spaghetti straps or short shorts are allowed, otherwise campers will be asked to change clothes.

What to Bring...

- Bible, Notebook, and pen or pencil
- Bug repellent, flashlight, and camera (optional)
- Pillow, sleeping bag or bedding, towel, soap & shampoo, and personal hygiene items
- Appropriate clothing for camp

REMEMBER...

It is important to remember, camp is camp, it is great fun, but can get messy, cold, hot, and rainy! Please plan ahead, check the weather, and dress and pack accordingly! No video games, weapons, magazines, drugs, tobacco or alcohol is allowed! Cell phones usage is at the discretion of the camp deans.

Severe Weather Procedure: The camp has 3 NOAA weather alert radios. We are also on the Butler Co. call list. When a tornado warning is in effect for Butler Co., we immediately seek shelter in the storm shelters. We will communicate with family members via Facebook. Please do not try to contact the camp. All updates will be made as prompt and public as needed. We are very proactive when it comes to the unpredictable severe weather.
